

DISENGAGEMENT MISUNDERSTANDING CLARIFIED

JERUSALEM (WNS)
-- Foreign Minister

Yigal Allon told the Knesset that Israel has received a satisfactory explanation from the United States of the joint American - Jordanian communique agreeing to work toward "a Jordanian-Israeli disengagement agreement."

Allon quoted Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's remark at a press conference that there are different versions of disengagement. Allon was speaking at a special Knesset session called at the request of the opposition parties.

MK Haim Landau, a leader of Likud's Herut wing, accused Kissinger of acting against Israeli interests and charged the Israeli government was responding blindly to dictates from Washington.

Allon described Kissinger as a "true friend of Israel but noted that he was "Secretary of State of the U. S. and not of Israel."

ARAB FOR SOLUTION TO MIDEAST PROBLEM

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Saudi Arabian Foreign Minister Omar Saqaaf, after a three-hour meeting with Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, said he hoped the Middle East problem "will soon be solved."

He said he was confident Kissinger would "continue his efforts to achieve a final settlement based on justice and the rights of the people in the area." Kissinger, who also reported "good progress" in the meeting, said that he would go to the Middle East in October for a "quick trip."

Saqaaf refused to answer a reporter's question on whether Saudi Arabia's idea of peace included an independent Israel. When Kissinger was asked about this, he said "all our decisions are in that framework. There is no other possibility for any discussion in which we participate."

Meanwhile in Cairo, Egyptian President Anwar Sadat in announcing he is relinquishing the post of Premier which he said he took as a war measure, said the war with Israel "has not ended yet." Sadat accused the Soviet Union of failing to honor its post-Yom Kippur War commitments of supplying Egypt with arms.

NO FOREIGN LAWYER FOR GREEK ARCHBISHOP

JERUSALEM (WNS)

-- Archbishop Hillarion Capucci, the head of the Greek Catholic Church in East Jerusalem and the West Bank, will not be permitted to hire a foreign lawyer to defend him against charges that he smuggled terrorist arms into Israel as the envoy of the Fatah organization.

Israeli law does not permit foreigners to appear in court trials except in cases where the defendant faces the death penalty. Capucci's superior Melchite Patriarch Maximum V in Beirut said he would hire a foreign lawyer. Meanwhile Maximus V arrived in Rome and said that there was no certain proof of Capucci's guilt. He said "what the Israelis call guilt the Arabs call heroism."
