

OF THE STARS' ★

ALL THE SINATRAS ON STAGE AT CAESARS PALACE

You name it, Caesars Palace has it with the Frank Sinatra Show, through Wednesday, September 18.

The legendary song star, making his third 1974 appearance at the Las Vegas hotel-casino, could stand on stage alone and totally satisfy his audiences but that's not good enough for Sinatra, the consummate showman.

Sharing the spotlight with Frank will be daughter Nancy and son Frank, Jr., a pair of talented performers in their own right. And that isn't all. Woody Herman and his band, comedian Pat Henry and The Veterans, a highly touted acrobatic-comedy troupes from Stockholm, Sweden, will also be featured on the bill.

The magic of the Sinatra name was never more evident than January 25-31, 1974, when Frank ended a three-year hiatus from cabarets by starring in the hotel's Circus Maximus theatre-restaurant. And last June 6-12, he returned with a show jazz music lovers are still dates and Caesars calling the greatest ever presented. His co-stars that engagement were Ella Fitzgerald and Count Basie. Well, it's that time again. The legend's legions of fans will enjoy a veritable Sinatra-feast with Sinatra, the father, Sinatra, the daughter, Sinatra, the son, September 12-18 the Andy Williams and The Lennon Sisters follow, September 19-October 9.

GUESS WHO?

The Las Vegas Recreation Department is offering Bridge Lessons at the Dula Recreation Center, 430 E. Bonanza Road, Tuesday evenings 7:30 - 9 P.M.

entertainment 11 p.m. to 5 a.m.

Nifty Nook

CHERRY & DON

ALL DRINKS 75¢ / HORS D'OEUVRES MIDNIGHT TO 4 A.M.

Continued

Happy New Year

to our friends in the Jewish Community

MR. AND MRS. JAMES HILL

A RECRION RESORT