ISRAEL INDICTS GREEK ARCHBISHOP

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Archbishop Hillarion Capucci, head of the Greek Catholic Church in East Jerusalem and the West Bank, has been indicted on three counts of performing services for the El Fatah terrorist organization.

They are illegally transporting and possessing weapons and maintaining contacts with foreign agents.

If found guilty he could be sentenced to 10 years imprisonment on each of the first two counts and 15 years for the third.

Jerusalem District Court Judge Miriam Ben Porat rejected the defense claim that the Archbishop is immune from prosecution because of his clerical status and ordered his detention continued "until completion of legal proceedings in his case." Judge Ben Porat also rejected an appeal by Capucci that he be transferred from jail to house arrest.
