

SETTLEMENT NEAR ON SOVIET IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- A settlement of the Soviet emigration and trade issues is near, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Kissinger's remarks came in reply to questions following his 6000-word report on U.S. - Soviet detente in which he stressed the overriding importance of detente, especially toward eliminating the danger of nuclear war. But Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R. N.Y.), one of three Senators with whom the Administration has been negotiating for a compromise on the Jackson/Mills-Vanik legislation, said, "We do not wish the signal to go up that we have changed course on the Jackson Amendment."

In his prepared comments, Kissinger again warned that raising the issues of Soviet domestic political practices might jeopardize arms limitation agreements between the United States and the USSR. Committee chairman

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D. Ark.) agreed with Kissinger's view noting that previous witnesses had agreed that the detente is the most important foreign policy issue for the U.S. and that it "engages" other factors including the Middle East.

COMPROMISE ON "WHO IS A JEW"

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The central committee of the National Religious Party by a 65 percent margin has agreed to accept a compromise on the Who is a Jew issue and join Premier Yitzhak Rabin's coalition government.

The committee approved the proposed formula after veteran party leaders Yosef Burg and Yitzhak Rafael expressed concern over recent secularist trends in the government. But the NRP's militant Young Guard and the center faction headed by former Religious Affairs Minister Zerach Warhaftig remained adamantly opposed.

"FIDDLER ON ROOF" STAYS BANNED IN CHILE

SANTIAGO (WNS) -- The reason given by the ruling Chilean junta for banning the film "Fiddler on the Roof" is that "it was considered to contain a message clearly favorable to the Marxist tendencies."

This remark was contained in a letter from Col. Pedro Ewing Hodar, the government's secretary, to Gil Sinay, president of the Chilean Jewish Community. Later

Meanwhile the Independent Liberal Party which is presently a member of the coalition has voted to reject the compromise. The strongly secular Civil Rights Party headed by Shulamit Aloni has also served notice that it would leave the coalition if the NRP joins it. The compromise formula calls for the suspension for one year of the registration of immigrant converts. During this time a ministerial committee will try to draft an acceptable legislative solution to the Who is a Jew question.

Sinay and Rabbi Angel Kreiman met with Chilean President Augusto Pinochet Ugarte in an unsuccessful attempt to convince him that the film was not Marxist inspired and that its banning would be construed abroad as having anti-Semitic tendencies.

According to Sinay, Ugarte said the film was not favorable to Jewish tradition because one of the hero's daughters married a person of another faith and another married a revolutionary who did not accept the traditional marriage bonds.
