

NO TERRORIST INCIDENTS ON ROSH HASHANA

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- With Security forces in an unprecedented state of alert Israelis celebrated Rosh Hashana. There were no incidents except for the morning of the eve of Rosh Hashana when two Arab youths were caught in a supermarket in Tel Aviv's Yad Eliyahu section carrying a home-made bomb in a shopping bag. In Northern towns close to the Lebanese border, worshippers carried rifles and hand guns to synagogues at the suggestion of security authorities. Special strengthened patrols were on duty along the borders and at synagogues in the northern towns. During the two day holiday Israeli artillery shelled terrorist concentrations in southern Lebanon several times as a means of preventing terrorist infiltration. But it was quiet and the synagogues throughout the country were crowded with prices that ranged from $20 to $100 a ticket. Special synagogues were opened at forward army bases. Soldiers were given holiday gifts by the Soldiers Welfare Funds and school children and on the eve of Rosh Hashana some 80 groups of entertainers put on shows at some 200 forward positions and bases. Many Israelis also spent the holidays at picnic sites and the beaches while others toured the country with the Golan Heights still the favored spot for sightseers. On the eve of Rosh Hashana 60 new immigrants arrived bringing the total for the Jewish year 5734 to 43,000, 20 percent less than last year. As Rosh Hashana ended 60 more immigrants arrived.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS (WNS) -- Jewish passengers aboard the Soviet luxury liner "Maxim Gorky," docked in Nassau harbor, held a Rosh Hashana service in the ship's chapel.
