

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The first anniversary of the Yom Kippur War was observed in Israel with special assemblies at all army bases and informal gatherings of Yom Kippur War veterans from various reserve units.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The only major obstacle to adoption of a trade bill giving most favored nation status to the Soviet Union is whether Congress or the President will determine the results of a United States-Soviet understanding allowing 60,000 Jews and others to emigrate annually from the USSR, according to Capitol Hill.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Archbishop Hillarion Capucci, head of the Greek Catholic Church in East Jerusalem and the West Bank, has pleaded not guilty to charges of delivering arms to terrorists in Israel and having contact with terrorist agents.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Two Arab youths who were arrested on the eve of Rosh Hashana in the act of planting a home-made time bomb in a Tel Aviv supermarket have revealed that a code transmitted through a Damascus radio news broadcast gave the green light for what was to have been a series of terrorist outrages against Israeli civilians over Rosh Hashana.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Demonstrating their solidarity with Soviet Jews, a group of Christian women staged a one-hour vigil during the premier performance of the Bolshoi Ballet at Lincoln Center in Manhattan.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- James McGuire, president of the United States Soccer Football Association, has criticized the action taken by the Asian Football Association in Teheran banning Israel from further participation in the Asian Games.

VIENNA (WNS) -- Jewish sources here report that there has been a considerable increase in German-speaking countries of propaganda books providing the "historical, legal and political background of the Middle East conflict from the Arab point of view."

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Some $5 million in loans and grants have been given out by three Jewish Agency funds for the employment of new immigrants during the first eight months of the year.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The few Jewish families living on the north coast of Honduras, which was struck by Hurricane Fifi (leaving a reported 5000 dead and 50,000 homeless) apparently suffered no casualties.

LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE

NEW YORK (LNS) -- In a pre-Rosh Hashana address to thousands of women gathered at Lubavitch world headquarters in New York and which was heard live in Lubavitch Centers around the world, the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, called upon all Jewish women to strengthen the observance of the traditional candle lighting before the Sabbath and holidays.

BEERSHEBA -- 120 students were sworn into service in the Beersheba Civil Guard and several hundred more are expected to volunteer for service in the near future.
