

JUDGE PAUL GOLDMAN FOR DIST. JUDGE

District Judge Paul Clark County is a S. Goldman, noting that the courts are "last resort" for settlement of many of society's problems, recently called for improvements in judicial procedure to speed the course of justice in Clark County.

LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE appointment to the bench by Governor Mike O'Callaghan earlier this year, recommended the following administrative changes to spur the pace of litigation here: -- Separation of the local district court into civil and criminal divisions, thus ending a disruption of the civil calendar because of the precedence given criminal matters.

ISRAELITE -- A master judge with power to enforce his assignments of cases and motions. -- An end to continuances merely because an attorney is not prepared to proceed. Judge Goldman said there also is a need for judges, court personnel and attorneys to make the public more aware of what transpires in administration of justice.
