JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Center is now getting back to full activity after a long High Holiday recess.

Most prominent on the Center agenda is Men's basketball. The Center has two teams in the league, and B'nai B'rith-AZA have combined to form another team. These three Jewish teams will be battling it out against other teams and against themselves on Saturday and Sunday evenings. B'nai B'rith defeated C. P. Keegal in both teams' league debut. Men on the B'nai B'rith team have been commenting that they have found something they finally can win at!

The afternoon Center program for elementary school age children continues to be a success. Activities range from arts and crafts to hockey. Registrations are still being accepted, and you can register from 9 to 5 on weekdays. Tomorrow night, (Saturday), at 7 o'clock, men's basketball will begin another weekend of play. Center members are urged to come down and cheer the teams on.
