"One Man Plus The Truth Constitutes A Majority"

BY JACK TELL

have to come up with candidates of merit. Patronage and loyalty to them will have to go out the window, along with the leaders themselves. It is the parting of the ways for parasites.

We'll be voting on Tuesday because, fortunately the shoe of mediocrity does not fit all the candidates. Some have earned our respect and support. If your mind is not made up as of now, we suggest you give the following some consideration. Here they are as they appear in numerical order on your ballot:

DAVID TOWELL (7), the Republican incumbent, performed creditably during his freshman two years in the House of Representatives. He combated inflation, voted for tax reform and favored balancing of the budget. He's a Nevadan to the core.

CHIC HECHT (31), the first Republican from Clark County to serve the State Senate and elected minority Party leader. He was only non-lawyer member of Senate Judiciary Committee. His solid business experience helped mold many beneficial money laws. His past record proves he has all the attributes of a good legislator and we are proud he is the first Jew to serve the state in this capacity.

PHIL LAMPKIN (33), a retired Army Lieut. Col., hopes to be one of three elected to State Senate from Clark County. A Republican, he has concrete platform planks. He advocates yearly sessions of the legislature to alleviate immediate requirements, like amendments to Senior Citizens Property Assistance Law which is outmoded, and a state contract with a local hospital to serve veterans until a Veterans Hospital is established.

RALPH MOSA (39), a candidate for County is in Jerusalem.

Jews who attribute their first interest in Judaism to the Y include Sam Levenson, Abram Sachar, Sandy Koufax, etc.

Throughout the world we now have beautiful Jewish Centers which provide educational and recreational services to thousands. The combined budget of the Centers is near $82 million.

The Jewish Welfare Board is our link with the government in providing chaplains. The Jewish element in the famed USO is JWB.

The Center movement, admittedly emulating the YMCA's, is very much an American product.

In the JWB national periodical, the Circle, Lionel Koppman, a gifted writer, itemizes some of the intriguing aspects of the history of the Centers. Some of the material in this column comes from the Koppman chronicle.

Happy birthday, JCC's. Biz tzvay hundert un tzvanzig! To 220!

NATHAN SHAPELL, LEFT, AUTHOR OF "WITNESS TO THE TRUTH" MEETS WITH FRED KAHAN, WESTERN EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE JEWISH NATIONAL FUND, TO DISCUSS READING SHAPELL WILL OFFER AT JNF CONFERENCE AT BEVERLY HILTON ON NOVEMBER 3. THE BOOK DETAILS SHAPELL'S ESCAPE FROM HITLER'S HOLOCAUST.

Commission F. has been a public servant for as long as we can remember. He deserves added consideration from fair-minded voters because of inaccurate and libelous statements in a Review-Journal editorial. Nevadans don't go for that kind of rot.

DAVE CANTER (40), prominent attorney, vice president of County School Board and Regional Planning Council, seeks a seat on County Commission G. He is above politics, having been appointed by both Republican and Democratic governors. He will be a leveling force on the commission because he is a great believer in respect for his fellowman. He is one public servant who will meet anyone anywhere to discuss views. He believes in one term in any post, which is all he needs to make his presence known.

ROY WOOFER (43) has a proven record of performance as District Attorney, in addition to being a very special kind of public servant. He has integrity. He has prosecuted and convicted more criminals than ever before in Clark County. We are fortunate to have a man like Woofor on the ballot.

RALPH LAMB (46) is a lawman's lawman, seeking re-election as Sheriff. He don't brag, he performs. We once said if modesty was a crime Sheriff Lamb would be jailed for life. But dignity should not be mistaken for weakness because he holds a tight reign on his department and gets the job done. He's a natural where he belongs.

WOODY COLE (64) was first elected Constable in 1944 and was returned 12 times. He's a perennial in his post and the kind of man who would get out of bed to help a neighbor find a lost dog. He knows his job, and carries it out, better than anyone we know.

CHARLES THOMPSON (85), seeking district judgeship, is a strong advocate of equal justice with no dual standards. He believes in tough sentences for the convicted. He is first judicial candidate to release full disclosure of his modest personal financial wealth.

JERRY KAUFMAN (92), alternate Municipal Court Judge running for District Judge, is totally committed to a lifelong judicial career. He believes in the dignity of the court, its officers and litigants. He pledges speedy trials, and justice for the community as well as defendants. We know and respect Jerry and are convinced he will preside impartially, firmly and decisively.

PAUL GOLDMAN (107), a former Naval officer, seeks to return as District Judge where he is serving as active Chief Judge and designated as Probate Judge. He sits on the Nevada Supreme Court at the request of the upper tribunal. He is on record recommending administrative changes to spur the pace of litigation because delays do not serve justice.

AL BECKER (115), who has spent more time in trial practice than all his opponents combined, seeks the post of Justice of the Peace on sound principles. He wants to eliminate "revolving door" for habitual criminals by strengthening the bail system and keeping hoodlums off the streets. He understands domestic problems having served as Las Vegas Chief of Child Welfare and Chairman of County Child Welfare Board.

JIM DEITCH (120), who has seen the University of Nevada develop from nothing to a dynamic institution during his 21 local years, seeks to become State University Regent. Jim is one man who has the capacity, the background and understanding to handle the state's highest budget. He knows Nevada, having served as Clark County News Bureau Chief, he knows school problems being a State Board of Education Certified vocational teacher, and above all he knows the score on how to cope with spending state funds. He operates a successful advertising agency.

"BABE" HAMMES (125) has been endorsed by Federation of Teachers Assn., and COPE AFL-CIO for the State Board of Education, Dist. E. A 20-year resident, she spends all her spare time for welfare of others, mainly retarded children. She's with E.O.B. Headstart Program, Mental Health Assn., Humane Society and many more. A teacher at Helen J. Stewart School, "Babe" knows the education system and how to cope with its problems.

On Question No. 5 (177) we will vote a firm yes for the bond issue to expand the Convention Center. Anything headed by Charlotte Hill has to be beneficial.

So vote if you must but make sure every vote counts.

Watch Emigration Agreement

The agreement reached between the Ford Administration and members of Congress led by Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D, Wash.) which is expected to lead to large scale emigration of Jews from the Soviet Union is indeed "an historic understanding in the area of human rights" as Jackson called it -- if it is realized in fact. Senators Jacob K. Javitz (R, NY) and Abraham D. Ribicoff (D, Conn.) took a lead in fashioning this agreement.

At the same time there have been some disquieting elements since Jackson first announced the agreement from the White House. First President Ford has stressed that no specific number of emigrants has been included in the Soviet assurance to the Administration that Jews and others will be allowed to emigrate without harassment. Even more important is the continued reports of arrests and harassments in major Soviet cities of Jews who are seeking to emigrate.

This is why the provision that Congress can veto renewal of trade benefits and credits to the Soviet Union if the agreement is not fulfilled, is so important. Jackson has stressed that Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has assured him that the Soviet authorities will end harassment and intimidation of those who seek to emigrate. He said this means that 60,000 emigrants a year is only a "benchmark" by which Congress can judge Soviet compliance and that the actual figure will be higher.

Of course the Soviets have not announced acceptance of the agreement and all we have is Kissinger's assurances of what they told him. But the reported agreement demonstrates the view held by many that detente is not a one-way street and that if the Soviets want detente they must make concessions too.

Hundert un Tzvanzig

By Rabbi Samuel Silver

Moses was said to live to 120, so we have a saying, "Biz a hundert to tzvanzig," "May you live to 120!"

Few individuals attain that age, but the Jewish world is currently celebrating the achievements of a movement which has reached 120.

The movement was once known as the Y (for YMHA), but now is called Jewish Community Center.

All JCC's (including the famous 92 Street Y in New York City) are part of one family, known as the Jewish Welfare Board.

The first Y was in Baltimore; a recent one
