Our condolences to Aileen Hepler on the loss of her beloved husband, Jack. Her close friends have been with her constantly during her bereavement.

To all the birthday guys and gals, happy, happy. Anniversary greetings, too.

Students of cinema, television or communications are eligible now to apply for a Bicentennial grant up to $3,000 for the production of 16-mm sound films or 2-inch videotapes in black and white or color. Sponsored by the U.S. Information Agency. Persons requesting a grant should contact Phillip Bonnel, USIA, Room 2406, Patrick Henry Building, 6th and D Streets, NW, Washington, D.C.

Nat Stadler home after undergoing surgery back East. He is doing just fine and will be returning to the Sands Hotel just as soon as he gets the O.K. from his doctor.

Sally Gordon has really had a time of it. She is back in the Sunrise Hospital. No calls please, but you can see her if you wish to visit her in the hospital.

Evelyn & Preston Feinberg, getting busy with their son's marriage to Michelle Fields, beautiful daughter of Jackie Fields the well-known champ.

If you were in the L. V. Country Club the other day, you would have seen Ann Walker, Fran Farber, Vi Kaufman, Ann Frank, Florence Cohen (Visiting from L.A.) and myself, having somewhat of a reunion. We gals traveled together when we visited Hong Kong and Bangkok. As many of you know, this trip was much fun and reminiscing was just as enjoyable. Ann Walker was the hostess. Ann too is a grandma of a precious little boychic. Her sons and she were looking forward to babysitting while the new dad and mother took a short vacation.

Lovely Maxine Burton and Helen Morelli, both wonderful gals, chatting away joyously, perhaps discussing what charity will be the next one to work on. Both are very active along these lines.

In recent men's basketball action involving Center and Temple teams, the Pacesetters outpaced the JCC to remain in first place in the Sunday Night Division.

In other action, B'nai B'rith-AZA was defeated by Fremont. This will be the last weekend of play before the tournament gets underway.

Following the tournament, the Center will get into full gear in the basketball department with leagues from grade 3 on to adult leagues. Tomorrow the Kolods will take on the Las Vegas Stars beginning at 4 p.m. Sunday night to close out the regular season, B'nai B'rith will meet Keegal at 5 p.m. At 6:15 p.m., the JCC will clash with H&S. In what should be the major battle of the season, the league leading Pacesetters will take on second place Fremont. What a way to close out the

Eleanor Roth Grasso, who came to Las Vegas with Jack Entratter in 1952, has resigned from her position at the Sands Hotel which she has held for the past "22 years." Mrs. Grasso would be a great asset to any other hotel in Las Vegas. By no means has Eleanor Roth Grasso considered "Retiring."

Reno, Saturday

Dear Jack,

Excuse me for being so informal towards someone I don't even know. But I feel I do, now, after reading and re-reading your piece on Shirley Crumpler. A journalist myself, I think it's one of the finest pieces of contemporary journalism I've had the pleasure to read in a long, long time. You are to be congratulated. I'm not Jewish, and I'm a Democrat. I do know Shirley, however, and can only admire her guts in the face of overwhelming odds. Incidentally, your article was reproduced up here, on a small scale by a Democrat (after I let him have the copy of the paper), and he was personally carrying it around to give to people he knows, most of whom are also Democrats, disillusioned type. I only wish every voter in the State could see it -- because everyone loves an underdog and it could do her ever so much good. In the face of all the propaganda we're exposed to, it is a breath of fresh, sagebrush-tinted air. It's good these days to "meet" a man with the courage of his convictions, moreover, lay it on the line. Many thanks for making my week.

Gratefully,
(Name Withheld)
