

RABAT DECISION BY ARABS NEGATES PEACE

Dr. Joseph P. Sternstein, President of the Zionist Organization of America, reacted to the Arab decision at Rabat by stating: "Since the Arabs know beyond doubt that Israel cannot possibly accept the establishment of PLO dominion over any area of the West Bank, the Rabat decision unmistakably signals a rejection by the Arabs of any intention of working seriously toward a negotiated settlement. This decision has done a grave disservice to the Palestinian people and has erected further barriers to the possibility of any just and lasting peace in the Middle East."

Dr. Sternstein continued: "The Rabat decision should serve to dispell whatever remaining illusions exist in our country about the nature of Arab intentions. Prodded by the Russians, the Arabs have made clear that they indeed have not renounced their ultimate aim of destroying Israel, and that the only interim solution that they will accept is one designed to set the stage for this final denouement."

"Under the circumstances, Israel has no choice but to stand firm and to proceed to take the steps necessary to provide for her security. With the Arab decision slamming shut the door to the possibility of any international agreement about the future of the West Bank, the fate of this area can no longer be left in suspension. Israel must now intensify her efforts to engage the Arab population indigenous to the

SMILES OF ACCOMPLISHMENT — The National Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, an association of 375 brotherhoods affiliated with the Conservative Movement, climaxed an extraordinary year of dedication to the Leaders Training Fellowship program by contributing to the Jewish Theological Seminary of America a total of $26,000. Aimed at high school boys and girls who are continuing their Jewish studies, LTF for more than two decades has encouraged the development of future rabbis, cantors, teachers and lay congregational leaders. In 1973 the Federation intensified its commitment to LTF by voting a mandatory assessment for its constituent clubs throughout the United States and Canada. The first year's stepped-up efforts produced $26,000, more than one half of LTF's annual budget administered by the Seminary. Photo made in New York at presentation of final $6,000 check reflects collective glow of pride by, left to right, Rabbi Joel S. Geffen, the Federation's spiritual advisor; Sylvia Eitenberg, Associate Dean of Seminary College of Jewish Studies — Teachers Institute and NFJMC President I. Murray Jacobs of Birmingham, Michigan.

West Bank in dialogue, rights to settlement in seeking an understanding with them that genuine peace and well will simultaneously provide for expression of all the inhabitants of the land of their Arab national identity, for the realization of Jewish historic rights to settlement in the area, and for the genuine peace and welfare of all the inhabitants of the land between the Mediterranean and the Jordan River."

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A practice drill against missile attacks is to be held in Tel Aviv to test Israel's largest city's ability to evacuate people, care for the injured and provide food, water, and essential services in case of an attack.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Some 2000 persons gathered at the Lincoln Monument in a demonstration organized by the Greater Washington Jewish Community Council to express protest and outrage over the United Nations General Assembly 105-4 vote inviting the Palestine Liberation Organization to participate in the debate on the Palestinian issue.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- A motion by the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League seeking to bar leaders of the Palestine Liberation Organization from coming to the United States to attend the United Nations General Assembly debate on the Palestine Question was denied by Federal District Court Judge Mark Constantino.
