As our men's league basketball program ends its inaugural season, the Center will now go into the full winter basketball season beginning November 10th.

The Center will have three teams participating in the league. Most of the league games will be scheduled at the Center and the same Saturday and Sunday evening times will stay in-effect. The Center also plans to add a new twist to our basketball team by spiritually backing them up with girl cheerleaders! The Center will also be having a mixed volleyball team participating in a Church Volleyball League.

The men's league will call it a season as the top two teams in each division battle for the league championship.
