ORT SABBATH
Training) will be given on this Friday, November 15, by Temple Beth Sholom, 1600 E. Oakey Boulevard. Rabbi Philip Shnairson will officiate in the service and Janet Sobel, ORT charter member, will be guest speaker. This and other ORT Sabbath observances to be held throughout the nation will honor the work of ORT, the vocational training program of the Jewish people, whose operations have aided Jewish communities and provided security, dignity and independence to more than a million Jews since 1880.

Shirley Sutter is ORT Sabbath Chairman and working on the committee are Edith Baron, president; Saralyn Zucker and Sharon Sepede. Mrs. Sutter stated that ORT Sabbath is a time during which we offer our thanks for what the ORT program has been able to achieve over the 90 years of its existence. ORT's more than 700 vocational installations in 27 countries comprise a giant international school system. The great problems that are faced by the
