PLO INTENTIONS: DISMANTLE ISRAEL

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (WNS) -- Yasir Arafat, the head of the Palestine Liberation Organization, clearly spelled out the PLO intention in the opening debate on Palestine in the United Nations General Assembly when he said his organization seeks a democratic secular Palestine state, a euphemism for the dismantling of Israel.

In his appearance before the U.N. he told that body that he had come there "bearing an olive branch and a freedom fighters gun. Do not let the olive branch drop from my hand."

The olive branch in effect was the gun that was pointing directly at Israel. Arafat was hard and uncompromising and he repeatedly voiced a threatening call for the dismantling of Israel.

In an expression of outrage at the parliamentary maneuvering of the U.N. General Assembly President Abdelaziz Bouteflika of Algeria who postponed the session a few hours to dramatize Arafat's appearance, the Israeli delegation boycotted the session which Arafat addressed. But after the Arab terrorist's speech, Israel Ambassador Yosef Tekoah declared that "today, bloodshed and bestiality have come here to collect the spoils of the United Nations' surrender." He declared that

We Need You

Dear Howard Hughes:

This is a most opportune time for you to return to Las Vegas.

The good name of Howard Hughes has been cleared by the dismissal of the phony indictment, and the slander suit should be settled any minute. Other annoying entanglements are far less important in priority, than the tremendous good that can be accomplished if you return, right now, where you belong.

Your presence in Nevada, where you are the largest employer, most certainly would be of advantage to your own interests, but I won't kid you, Mr. Hughes, WE NEED YOU. Ominous clouds are gathering and we are in for some dark, deep, troubled times ahead.

Nevadans, including over 8,000 of your own loyal employees, who have never forgotten what you did for our broken economy when you settled here in 1966, will welcome you back with open arms. They remember the 7,500 vacant apartments and thousands of unoccupied new homes, vandalized with broken windows and fences. Then came the moratorium on mortgages that brought all building trades to a standstill, and the small business bankruptcies were piling up. To top it all many hotels were in financial trouble, while casinos were facing government scrutiny.

The advent of you, Mr. Hughes, created an electrifying effect in every direction.

Your reputation as an astute businessman told the whole world that Nevada gambling was a good, sound investment. New money poured in from the most respectable financial institutions in the country. Federal investigations were curtailed. Small businesses reopened and new ones flocked to town. Our dwindling population started to grow. New building of hotels, casinos, apartments, homes, stores, office buildings, were at the highest level.

There you have it, Mr. Hughes, your faith in the future of Nevada, transformed a disaster area into a boom state.

Now we need you again, but desperately.

This time it will be different.

It is no longer necessary or advisable for you to seek the support of Sun publisher Hank Greenspan to publish truthful news stories about you AT A PRICE. All other newspapers in Nevada are honest, and reputable, and will print the news at it happens, WITHOUT CHARGE and with NO PERSONAL INTENT TO MISLEAD READERS.

The public has been made fully aware of

EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PLAN IN ISRAEL

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- despite the hard-line Histadrut resolutions, the unions will eventually agree to forgo part of the cost-of-living allowances at least for higher paid workers. Israelite Ads Pay

Within the past week, Israelis faced soaring prices resulting from the devaluation of the Israeli pound and other severe economic measures.

Meanwhile, with this Knesset victory in hand by the government, it was reported that
