Sincere, deep and universal congratulations to Jack and "Babe" Hammes on the marriage of their daughter, Hilary Ann, to Dr. David Marshall Bloom, Saturday, December 14, at Temple Beth Sholom.

Evan Hornsby will be a Bar Mitzvah before you know it. He is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Len Hornsby, Executive Director of the Convention Center and my boss. I anxiously look forward to attend this simcha.

Maury and Muriel Stevens planning the wedding of their one and only son, Bruce. More on this later. I believe Rabbi Weissberg of Reform Temple will perform the marriage ceremony. This will be a first for Rabbi Weissberg and here's hoping many more happy ceremonies will take place among his followers.

For those families who think Las Vegas N.G. for bringing up children. Here is another success story. David Katzman, who was raised in this city, graduated grade, high school and graduated from UNLV earning a degree in hotel administration, is now associated with the Sahara Hotel as National Sales Manager, handling corporate/association solicitation tour and travel bookings. David is the son of James and Sophie Katzman, popular couple with a multitude of friends. I am sure we all join the Katzmans in wishing David well.

Long time resident Al Goot seriously ill. Let us all hope and pray he recovers. Send

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Center's winter basketball program is now swinging into full gear.

Our elementary school age league, which will be participating in the County League still needs more players. Deadline for all team registrations is December 5th. So far, our elementary ballplayers consist of Peter Knowles, Jimmy Mason, Arthur Sellinger, Don Sherman, Brett Jaeger, Mark Reinhardt, and Ken Kreisler. We expect to have a very strong Jr. High team this year. Those who have registered so far are Quinn Reinhardt, Dori Kardonik, Mark Wyner, Harold Wrobel, Richard Radstone, Craig Vandemcer, Daryl Morris, Billy Mason, Steve Cramer, Jeff Diamond, Andy Katz, Jack Wiener, Ken Goussack, Stuart Berger, Jeff Kaufman, Kevin Kreisler and Jay Herman.

Jr. High age girls that are interested in cheerleading should contact either Kay Kreisler at 384-7751 or Tani Katz at the Center. New cheerleaders that have recently been added to the roster are Debbie Tatz, Collette Richards, Wendy Kassin, and Linda Cramer.

In the opening of the winter Church Basketball League, Center and Temple Teams got off to a fairly good start. The Kolods downed 1st Good Shepard while AZA won its opener against S.N.C.E. B'nai B'rith was edged out by a point to Calvary Lutheran. Church League games are being held on weekends from 4 to 7 p.m.

The Pacesetters closed out the Men's League by taking the league championship the second year in a row in the Sunday Division. In the championship for the Saturday Night Division, the Cowboys smashed the Las Vegas Stars.

get well messages to him, Sunrise Hospital. Phone calls can be bothersome, especially when one is so ill. Etta, his ever loving wife, is with him constantly.

Condolences to the family of Mrs. Joyce (Marty) Goldberg. Internment took place in Los Angeles. She is survived by her daughter, Ann Whitfill and grandson residing in Overland Park, Kansas and a son, Mark, resident of Las Vegas. Rest in peace, dear.

Is Sylvia and Nat Hart back in town??

Get well wishes to Allan Silverman. His pretty wife sells those excellent beauty products "Aida Gray."

Hope all the families have a wonderful Thanksgiving weekend with family, friends, and especially those whose children will be coming home from school.

The Laxer household is jumping with joy. Their only child, Susan, will be getting married early in January to someone the family approves of and will be most happy to have a son-in-law. He is an attorney, practicing in Los Angeles, and Sam Robin is fortunate to get a gal like Susan for his wife. Mazel Tov to both families.

Thank you all for commenting on how good my hair has been looking. Thanks should go to "Franco," (Lew Arts Hair Design - see AD in paper) who has been doing hair since he was about ten years old. He learned the art in Italy. He is fast, does not keep you waiting and is an excellent stylist. Of course, he designs my style with a flattering hair-do every time.

Auditions for "ABIE'S IRISH ROSE," the next TASI production, will be held at 8 p.m. December 2nd and 3rd at the Las Vegas Recreation Department's Reed Whipple Cultural Arts Center. All theatre enthusiasts in Southern Nevada are invited to try-out for roles.

Mrs. Zelda Fightlin, recuperating nicely after major surgery. She is in Los Angeles with daughter Bailey Rubinstein and family.

My ex-boss, (who really got me started writing a column years ago) Morry Zenoff, was the recipient of the "John Zenger" award for outstanding journalism. He was presented with this award by the Western Regional Conference of Eagles. Wisconsin Supreme Court Judge Robert W. Hansen, twice worthy grand president of the Eagles, did the honors. Morry was a good boss and I enjoyed working for him, so Good Luck, and keep writing. Many of Morry's friends attended this dinner, along with other personalities.

Mr. & Mrs. Jackie Fields announced the engagement of their daughter, Michele Georgette, to Robert H. Feinberg, son of Mr. & Mrs. Preston Feinberg. November 30th will be the day they say "I Do" to each other and I wish them both much happiness. I have known Michele for many years, and I know that the Feinbergs will gain a daughter and the Fields a son. So Mazel Tov and may your years together be many.

The new Reform Temple, 2900 Palomino Lane, will observe ORT Sabbath on Friday, November 29, 8:00 p.m. with Rabbi Stephen Weisberg conducting the services. Shirley Sutter is ORT Sabbath chairman, and Janet Sobel, charter member, will be guest speaker. Committee members include Donna Watson, Saralyn Zucker, Sharon Sepede and Edith Baron, president. This is the first time the Las Vegas chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) has conducted two ORT Sabbaths in one year.
