

RABIN REJECTS TALK WITH PLO

JERUSALEM (WNS) Ariel Sharon, a leader -- Premier Yitzhak of Likud, that Israel Rabin has rejected as negotiate with the "too absurd to merit Palestinians to depose consideration" a pro-King Hussein of Jordan.posal by Gen. (Ret.) Sharon in an interview with Maariv, said that the only alien presence in the area was the Hashemite kingdom of Jordan, not the Jews, whose homeland this is, nor the Palestinian Arabs some of whom have lived here for centuries. He said that if Israel was willing to talk to the barbarous Syrians, it should not rule out talks with the Palestinians and their leaders provided the latter agreed that everything west of the Jordan River is and must remain part of Israel.

Asked for comment by a group of editors in Tel Aviv, Rabin said that if Sharon was asking that Israel should help Yasir Arafat overthrow Hussein and set up his own regime in Jordan, the suggestion was nonsense. But if Sharon was only saying that the Palestinian problem ought to be solved within the context of a single Palestine - Jordan entity, he was expressing what has long been the firm policy of the Israeli government, Rabin said.

NEW YORK -- Sixty-two leading figures in the arts and intellectuals, including 19 Nobel Laureates, both Christians and Jews, have declared that they will not cooperate with UNESCO as long as that agency persists in its decisions to withhold aid to Israel and to exclude Israel from membership in any of UNESCO's regional groupings.
