

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The State Department announced that the U.S. and Algeria have resumed formal diplomatic relations. Algeria was one of the Arab states that broke diplomatic relations with the country during the Six-Day War.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Maki, the Israel Communist Party that is independent of Moscow, has declared that it is a Zionist party and will join the World Jewish Congress. Maki, which has no representation in the Knesset, differs sharply from that of the pro-Moscow Rakah Communist Party which has four Knesset seats.

JERUSALEM -- In a major response to soaring U. S. college costs, the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization is launching a "Gift of Education" plan, offering qualified U. S. students two years of college in Israel -- expenses "prepaid" and tuition free. Detailed information may be obtained by writing to BBYO Gift of Education Plan, 30 E. 42nd Street, Suite 1320, New York, New York, 10017.
