SHECKY GREENE, LOU RAWLS AT MGM

"Natural Man" Lou Rawls will join wild man Shecky Greene in the Celebrity Room spotlight at the MGM Grand Hotel opening a special limited engagement through Saturday, December 14th.

For Grand super-star Greene, the Celebrity Room is his own delightfully familiar playpen. Shecky's upcoming engagement will mark the seventh stint in the plush 1,200-seat entertainment center's first year for the comic genius.

Rawls' Celebrity Room appearance marks the blues-king's main showroom debut in Las Vegas. It is not his first appearance at the Grand, however. Rawls is the acknowledged "king" of the Grand's main entertainment lounge, the Lion's den. Rawls comes by the tag "king" of the Lion's Den naturally. The "Natural Man's" previous outings at the Grand have had the Lion's Den roaring with the sweet smell of success.

SIDRO'S ARMADA

Don't try to label Sidro's Armada! The fantastically versatile seven member troupe has an originality and a uniquely exciting style and sound that defies comparisons. Now swinging nightly in the Sahara Hotel's Casbar Theatre, Sidro Garcia and his gifted crew also defy categorizing as a showroom act or a lounge act. Since early in their meteoric joint career they have been appearing with great success in both. In addition to toplining major hotel showrooms and nighteries in Hawaii, Puerto Rico, St. Thomas, V.I., the Bahamas, and coast-to-coast Sidro's Armada regularly plays lounges and main rooms in Las Vegas and at Harrah's, Lake Tahoe, appearing on the bill with a number of stars including Jim Nabors and twice guesting on his network TV variety series.

Last week, while the Nabors show was headlining the Sahara's Congo Room, co-star Charo was taken ill with the flu and Sidro's Armada substituted for her rejoining Jim for three performances and winning many new fans who since have been to see them in the Casbar. Handsome leader Sidro Garcia, an arresting singer and show-stopping guitar soloist, keeps their repertoire varied to appeal to all ages and musical tastes, changing pace and tempo with popular ballads, rock, country-western, and Latin.

SKI LEE - This is the theme that prevails around Las Vegas during the winter as the Lee Canyon Ski Resort is only a 45-minute drive from the heart of the city. It has full day facilities including a 3,000-foot double chairlift.
