TERRORIST KILLS 3 IN TEL AVIV THEATRE

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A terrorist, throwing grenades in a Tel Aviv movie house, killed three persons, including himself, and injured 58, some of them seriously.

Police said the terrorist threw three grenades from the balcony of the Chen Cinema on Dizengoff Circle in the heart of downtown Tel Aviv and the fourth grenade exploded on his body. The man who was blown up by his own grenade was identified as Alexander Adam Hooper, a white, born in Accra, Ghana, and living in Turkey, according to a British passport he was carrying which police believe was forged.

He arrived on a flight from the Far East about 12 hours before he hurled the grenades and checked into the Commodor Hotel directly across from the theatre. Police said the terrorist entered the theater with the grenades hidden in a plastic girdle concealed by his overcoat. The guard at the theater apparently was not suspicious because many people were wearing coats due to the cold, rainy weather. The two others killed were identified as Robin Keith Barburry, 34, an engineer from England who worked in a Tel Aviv food cannery, and his Israeli friend, Sarah Schuchman, 28, of Tel Aviv.

Police found a valise full of plastic explosives in Hooper's hotel room.

The terrorist attack was the first fatal one in Israel's largest city since 1971, when a grenade exploded in Tel Aviv's central bus station. Police cordoned off Dizengoff Circle and kept furious crowds at bay. Several Arabs who worked in restaurants in the area were taken into protective custody. Security officials urged Israelis not to retaliate against local Arabs or residents of the West Bank.

NEW YORK -- The 1975 National Conference on Jewish Camping, to be held for the first time in Miami Beach, Florida will take place January 12 to 16 at the Deauville Hotel.

BALTIMORE -- Former Israel Foreign Minister Abba Eban has told the Zionist Organization of America that Israel won't yield her territory or her sovereignty to the Arabs.
