Friday evening, December 27, at Temple Beth Sholom, has been designated as "COLLEGE SABBATH." This evening will be dedicated to all our young people who are attending University or College, and who will be home for the winter vacation or semester break. Call Temple if you have any young people in college.

In an attempt to reduce the number of dwelling fires caused each year by the misuse of fireplaces and fuel, the Nevada State Fire Marshal warns home rolled newspaper logs should NEVER be soaked in flammable fuel of any kind because of the severe danger of explosion.

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas ranks first in the nation among many institutions of its size and stature in the amount of non-alumni private financial support it received during a one-year period, according to a report just issued by a New York fundraising firm.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

Most of the Center basketball teams have now begun their winter season of play.

Our high school team coached by Mike Moffett is playing on weekday evenings in the city league. Some of the leading players include Kelly Hayes, Brian Spector, Morris Raiskin, Mitch Jaeger, and Jody Pollack. The 9th grade team is looking forward to an impressive season participating in the city league at Dula Recreation Center. The 7th-8th grade team has Neil Freidman as their only veteran player returning from last year's undefeated squad. Coach Farrell commented about the team, "We will be working on basic fundamentals, we have a lot of 7th graders on the roster, and we are looking for a very strong team next year." The team is lead by Jeff Kaufman, Saul Sellinger, Neil Freidman, Jeff Diamond, Shane Holliday, Stewart Berger, Mark Winer, Jamie Seybold, Jay Herman, Mitch Ogron, and Andy Katz.

In men's league action, the Kolods continued undefeated, slipping past tough S.N.C.E., 49-39. Mark Gordon and Phil Logan paced the team with 16 points each. B'nai-B'rith upset 1st Good Shepard, 47-40. Top scorers and rebounders included Mike Singer, Terry Rabin, and Mark Fine. Coming off the bench, Arnie Goussak, set up the team for some timely plays. You can see the men's team in action on Saturday evenings from 4 to 6 p.m.

Last week's winners in the afternoon Center program were Cami Ogron for the girl's division, and Kenny Kreisler for the boy's division.

The elementary school age teams will be practicing heavily during the holiday vacation. They will begin their season in January.
