SENATE APPROVES JACKSON AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON (WNS) — The Senate by an 88-0 vote approved the Jackson Amendment which provides trade concessions to the Soviet Union in exchange for less restrictive emigration policies.

The amendment, as adopted, includes the ratification of the understanding between the United States and the Soviet Union on emigration. It does not specify any figure for emigration but Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D. Wash.) said during the debate preceding the vote that if the USSR adhered to the agreement, more than 60,000 Jews would emigrate in 1975. Following adoption of the Amendment the Senate approved the Administration's Foreign Trade Bill by a vote of 77-4. The Senate now must reconcile technical differences between its bill and that adopted by the House.

Earlier Jackson told 500 Jewish community leaders from the U.S. and Canada attending the 60th anniversary meeting of the Joint Distribution Committee in New York that he will watch carefully to see to it that the Soviet Union abides by its agreement on emigration or it will not receive U.S. trade benefits and credits.

The amendment, as adopted, allows the President to offer the Soviet Union most favored nation trade status for a minimum of 18 months if he certifies that Soviet emigration procedures have been liberalized.
