JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Center flag football teams have finished their regular season play. Both the elementary and junior high squads finished with 2-2 records. The elementary squad lost their final game to St. Johns.

In that game Mike Stein ran a 60 yard sweep play for the Center's only score.

In basketball play, the Senior high squad has begun their season in the city league. They were victorious in their season opener, slipping past the Gargantuas 44-37. In the second game of the season the senior high Kolods lost 52-51 despite a fantastic fourth quarter comeback.

In the Men's Church League the JCC remains undefeated. B'nai B'rith has lost four straight games by a single point, while AZA is showing signs of improvement. The Center 9th grade squad lost their opener to the Bruins, 22-15.
