MIDEAST CONFLICT PORTRAYED IN MAPS

NEW YORK (WUP) -- More than half a century of the bitter conflict which has raged between Arabs and Israelis has been graphically portrayed in a unique volume entitled "Atlas of the Arab-Israel Conflict" to be published by Macmillan on January 9.

In 101 maps British historian Martin Gilbert traces the Zionist struggle from its beginnings in history through March 1974, including the Jewish re-settlement of Palestine, diplomatic struggles, military campaigns, the flight of the Arab refugees and the rise of Palestinian terrorism. The maps are heavily annotated with historical narrative and quotations. The "Atlas" is the eighth volume in Macmillan's History

Atlas Series. Previously published titles cover ancient, recent, British, American, Jewish and Russian history and the First World War.

The 101-page volume is divided into six divisions: 1. Prelude to Conflict; 2. The Jewish National Home; 3. The Conflict Intensifies; 4. The State of Israel; 5.

After the Six-Day War; 6. The Yom Kippur War.
