DAYAN SAYS U.S. REVERSED SUPPORT OF ISRAEL, JEWISH LEADERS DISAGREE

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- THE JACKSON-VANIK AMENDMENT, WHICH TIES IN THE EASING OF SOVIET EMIGRATION FOR JEWS AND OTHERS WITH U.S. TRADE BENEFITS AND CREDITS FOR THE SOVIET UNION, BECAME LAW AS PRESIDENT FORD SIGNED THE TRADE REFORM ACT.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- THE WHITE HOUSE SAID THAT SECRETARY OF STATE HENRY A. KISSINGER "DID REFLECT THE PRESIDENT'S VIEW" WHEN HE WARNED IN A BUSINESS WEEK INTERVIEW THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD CONSIDER A RESORT TO FORCE TO SECURE MIDDLE EAST OIL "IN THE GRAVEST EMERGENCY."

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The United States has reversed its support of Israel's policy that no territorial withdrawals will be made before a final peace treaty with the Arabs is achieved, according to former Defense Minister Moshe Dayan.

"And Israel has accepted this policy," Dayan told hundreds of students and faculty members in the third of his series of lectures at Bar Ilan University. Dayan said that Israel does not accept the American viewpoint, the U.S. applies pressure, he charged.

Dayan said the U.S. avoids confrontation with the Soviet Union by applying pressure on Israel. For example, he said, when the USSR threatened to intervene if Israel continued its advance in the Yom Kippur War, the Americans forced Israel not to advance, thus averting a confrontation.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- A 25-member delegation from the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations came away from a three-hour briefing with Premier Yitzhak Rabin impressed with both the Premier's long-range planning and Rabin himself.

"Some of us had been under the impression that Israel's government was 'muddling through' without a clear-cut plan," Rabbi Israel Miller, chairman of the Presidents' Conference, said. "But now we see the overall plan."

The delegation members had high praise for Rabin's ability to get recent and current Middle East events into their broader global context. The delegation was in Israel for four days, meeting with Israel government and Jewish Agency officials to discuss common issues confronting Jews in Israel and the United States and to exchange views on the efforts to build understanding of Israel's cause among the makers of public opinion and public policy in the U.S.

Upon their arrival in Israel, Rabbi Miller told newsmen that the mood in the U.S. toward Israel was still positive but there were clouds on the horizon. He said that as far as he knew, the U.S. was honoring its commitments toward Israel including the shipment of arms. Rabbi

TELL TALES

"One Man Plus The Truth Constitutes A Majority"

BY JACK TELL

Price, Jarlson, Arabs

Nothing disgusts us more than disparaging comments by seemingly unbiased reporters against persons with whom they have been actively involved in the past.

We refer to a pair of columnists on, ugh, The Las Vegas Sun, Paul Price and Alan Jarlson, who force upon the readers exaggerated, blown-up, personalized versions of stories that have already appeared in the regular news columns. The obvious purpose of these apparently honest newspapermen, whose motives are inherently dishonest, is to emphasize the circumstances of persons in the news who had caused havoc in the personal lives of the ones doing the writing.

We start with Price, who has been picking on City Commissioner Hal Morelli ever since Morelli beat Price, and decisively, for the past four years ago. It is anybody's opinion how good or bad Hal has been as a public servant, but we state, without reservation, Morelli has proven to be a far better man for the office than Price would have been. Paul has been, and possibly still is, on so many payrolls WHILE WRITING HIS COLUMN, it would have been impractical for him to render impartial decisions on many matters that came before the Commission.

In addition, Price proved to be a deliberate liar when he said he had received permission from Nevada Supreme Court Justice David Zenoff to print a letter market private and confidential. How could anyone have confidence in a writer or politician who is

GOJO SOLID BEHIND ISRAEL

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The 75 delegates to the World Conference of Jewish Organizations representing 11 Jewish organizations on five continents concluded a two-day meeting here with a message to Premier Yitzhak Rabin expressing their "eagerness" to participate in any worldwide meeting Rabin might call to enable Jews throughout the world to "give voice to their solidarity with Israel."

Mrs. Charlotte Jacobson, acting chairman, signed the message which said that if Rabin wanted to call a Prime Minister's Conference in 1975 or a smaller conference of Jewish leaders later this month "we are prepared."
