

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MC INNES

MOVIE TRIPPING....Chalk up at least 7 Academy Award nominations for United Artist's new flick, "Lenny." Best Actor...DUSTIN HOFFMAN... Best Actress.....VALERIE PERRINE, Best Film, Best Director...BOB FOSSE, Best Photography...BRUCE SURTEES, Best Editing... ALAN HEIM & Best Screenplay...JULIAN BARRY. Fosse has repeated his "Cabaret" success proving he's not just a musical director and has again created the whole feeling of the period. He has also elicited powerhouse performances from his whole-cast but most notably from Hoffman and Perrine. You expect good work from Hoffman but he really outdoes himself in this one. He actually becomes LENNY BRUCE and not by imitating. Valerie, heretofore a sexy, capable actress proves herself to be a major talent. Thank God they dropped all that dreck that was in the Broadway production and just presented the true story of Lenny Bruce, one of the funniest and most tragic comedians in history. It's definitely for adults.

SISTER SLEDGE, Atlantic Records' new dynamite recording group (Four girls ranging from 15 to 20) have a new hit called "Love, Don't You Go Through No Changes On Me." They must have forgot to sing to their crack personal manager BUDDY ALLEN because since he started handling the energetic girls, he's dropped 18 pounds. And that's quite a change.

JIM NABORS STARRING AT SAHARA, WITH CHARO AND NABORS KIDS.

Buddy. Allen is due in Hollywood soon to start heavy promotion on S.S.
Do some heavy promotion on yourself this week. And enjoy!
