JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS BY STEVE HERMAN

A new addition to the growing number of Center facilities and equipment is our third billiards table. One of the other billiards tables recently had a new felt top put on it. All the tables now are in fine shape and are now getting good usage. The popular foosball table also got a new glass top, and is now looking good as new. The sauna is now back in use after a small malfunction.

Mike Moffet's high school basketball team continues as the only winning youth basketball team at the Center. In the team's last outing, the Kolods downed the "All-Stars," 42-39. Leading scorer for the Kolods in that game was Morris Raiskin with 12. Both Andy Eskin and Morris hit 4 out of 5 foul shots to hold the lead during the game.

Other standouts on the team were: Brian Spector, Pat Szyzman, Kelly Hayes, Mitch Jaeger, Pat Ward, Sam Butler, and Don Harris.

All the Center basketball teams are now enjoying new custom uniforms. The jerseys and pants are in the traditional Jewish blue and white.
