

U.S. WOOING OF ARABS COULD BE WAR

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The United States is following a "fallacious" policy in the Middle East of wooing Arabs at Israel's expense which could lead to a new war, according to Prof. Hans Morganthau, chairman of the National Committee on American Foreign Policy.

Addressing a press conference called by the Committee, Morganthau said he supported Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's recent warning that the U.S. would not rule out force to secure Mideast oil but said that this in itself showed that Kissinger's policies had failed. Morganthau said America's alternative in the Mideast is "to stand pat and make Israel as strong as possible" even though this might lead to a new Arab-Israeli war and a confrontation between the super-powers.

He said the Arab summit conference at Rabat and Yasir Arafat's United Nations speech "have left no doubt that the Arabs want Israel to disappear."

PHARAOH'S FOOTSTEPS

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Florence Leeds of Millburn, New Jersey, sees a parallel of Egypt's present policy to that of the ancient Pharaoh who decreed the destruction of every new-born Hebrew male child.

In a recent letter to the N. Y. Times, Miss Leads writes:

"Egyptian Foreign Minister Fahmy's proposal that Israel freeze her present level of population is reminiscent of Pharaoh's edict to destroy every new-born male of the ancient Israelites. The method is different, but not the aim: 'the destruction of the Israelites.'"

"Such an outrageous proposal, which must be rejected by any civilized society, makes it evident that Egypt is not interested in any meaningful solution to the Mideast crisis...."
