

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

NEW YORK -- "Aspects of Jewish Life" is a selected and annotated bibliography of more than 700 selected books and multi-media materials. It was prepared for the JWB Jewish Book Council by Hannah Grad Goodman and includes 39 different subjects ranging from A -- the American Jewish Community, American Jewish History, American Jewish Immigration, Archeology and Art -- through Y -- Yiddish and Yiddish Literature. Copies are available at $2.00 each from the JWB Jewish Book Council, 15 East 26th Street, New York, N. Y. 10010.

HAIFA -- A new decalogue of technological responsibility was presented to the President of the State, Professor Ephraim Katzir, by the delegates to the Technion-Wunsch International Symposium on "Ethics in an Age of Pervasive Technology."

NEW YORK, N. Y. -- Volume I of a liberal commentary on the Torah, the first to be produced by the Reform movement in Judaism and the only such work ever published in North America, has just been completed by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

CHARLOTTE HILL HONORED
at the MGM Grand Hotel.

William Weinberger, President of Caesars Palace and Dinner Chairman for the event said this award is not to be taken lightly. Criteria for selecting the local Distinguished Citizen includes: One who has made contributions to the economic and civic growth of Clark County and Nevada, One who participates unselfishly in improvements for Community enrichment, One who is concerned with problems of young people in today's society and One who is dedicated to N.C.C.J.'s goals and ideas of brotherhood and justice until they become standards of human relations among all Americans. This criteria was set in Clark County, in 1973 when the first Distinguished Citizen Award was given to Harley Harmon and certainly said Weinberger, Charlotte Hill meets each and every one of these requirements.

Mrs. Hill, a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, is married to James Hill, President of the Fremont Hotel. They have two grown daughters. Mrs. Hill just completed serving as 1974 United Way Campaign Chairman in the most successful United Way Drive ever. In serving in this capacity she was the first woman in the History of the United Way of Southern Nevada to hold this very important position. She currently is Administrator, Founder and Chairman of the Las Vegas Sun Summer Camp Fund and member of Frontier Girl Scouts nominating committee, just to mention a few.
