

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

RICK MCINNES

GENA ROWLANDS showed up at the Masquers Club in Hollywood for what she thought was a tribute to her actress-mother LADY ROWLANDS by the Masquerettes. She looked fondly at her mother as TISH SADLER, the program chairman extolled the virtues of their "honoree." When a baby picture of Gena flashed on the screen as Tish announced their "Woman," Gena was genuinely surprised and touched. Friends recalled some amusing anecdotes about her a la "This Is Your Life." Lady told a story about the moment that she knew that Gena would become an actress. Seems that she was in the school play and had memorized everyone's lines including her own and when she finished her bit, she mouthed the words to the rest of the kids parts. Lady said she was so relaxed that she knew Gena would have to be an actress. The wonderful part of the story was that while Lady told it, Gena was unconsciously mouthing the words to it. MARTHA SCOTT was introduced as the "only other actress that Lady allowed to play Gena's mother in films" and JOHN CASSAVETTES came in after a screening of their smash film "A Woman Under the Influence" to add his comments. When Gena saw him, she exclaimed "I can't imagine you keeping a secret." But secret it was and it was a wonderful moment when prexy MARY ANN GOULD presented Gena with the honorary Masquetette plaque.

What do Superstars do after they tape a Superspecial????????? Well, if you're CHER, BETTE MIDLER & ELTON JOHN, you take a group of pals including RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN & DAVID GEFFEN over to the Studio One to catch Vegas favorite LYNNE CARTER'S opening night. First, Cher and Elton did a torrid dance in the midst of the galeity that was a sight to behold, Cher in jeans, long-sleeved jersey and suede vest looking absolutely gorgeous and Elton, in plaid kilts and a tam. Lynne, as usual did a good show, limning PEARL BAILEY, HERMINONE GINGOLD, PHYLLIS DILLER & MARLENE but was a trifle upstaged by the Super Audience. Cher was wonderful and warm in her acknowledgement of Lynne's introduction, Elton was cold as usual, Bette seemed to be sneering at everything and Chamberlain seemed a bit uncomfortable, but stood up and waved. It was a Super Night!!! You too can have Super Nights. Try to have a good time this week.
