JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

A young adult's volleyball team is on the Center agenda of activities for the coming months. The volleyball team will be participating in a volleyball Church league. The team will be playing once a week on weeknights at the Center. All interested volleyball players of high school age on up should call the Center office for registration information.

Spring softball registration will begin at the end of February. The Center will be having teams from elementary school age up to adult teams. There is quite a good chance that the Center will also have girl's and women softball teams this year.

Center will be hosting an open tennis tourney in March. Matches will be held at the Hacienda Hotel tennis courts.
