At the "Briss" (Circumcision) of Lawrence Adam Schnitzer last Saturday, all in attendance admired the skilled performance of the "Mohel," Rev. Sherwin Baim of Los Angeles, except the 10-day-old baby, who was held tenderly and being soothingly stroked by our own Cantor Joseph Kohn.

A sincere, touching letter from a 59-year-old man with a clean record, who seeks honest employment, warrants an appeal to readers. He is bondable and needs work very bad. He will gladly take a porter's job in any casino. He has experience as warehouseman, cook's helper and store room man. Sounds like a handy man to have around. Please, someone, take a chance on him. Call 385-3957. Ask for Sam. (J.T.)

Sen. Howard Cannon has co-sponsored legislation to block an administration proposal to raise the cost of food stamps. The increase would affect some 26,000 recipients in Nevada.

Our 3rd-4th grade basketball team won their second game of the season, 24-18 over the Allison Cougars. The young Kolods remain undefeated as of this time. Arthur Sellinger hooped in 12 points and brought down 12 rebounds for the winning effort. Other scorers in the game were Paul Tatz with 8 points, Billy Barnes with 2 points, and Steve Eisen also with 2 points. New additions to the team roster are: Matthew Rubin, Bernard Miller, Jimmy Macias, and Leo Brotman. The team is now playing their games at Woodbury Junior High School. This team has had a lot of support at the games, and the more the better.

Another addition to the Center is a new floor of carpeting acquired from Caesars Palace Hotel. It is now in the process of being installed.

In addition to softball

this spring, baseball oriented Center members can look forward to indoor wiffle ball teams. The teams will most likely be for youths from elementary school age up to high school age teams. These leagues will get underway when the outdoor weather gets too hot for softball. Look for more details in the coming months.

When the cataclysmic earthquake of 1755 destroyed Lisbon, it signaled an end to the comfortable optimism of the Age of Reason. The great irrational forces -- sex, superstition and fear -- were released and found vivid shape in the art of the time. Nowhere, except perhaps in the works of Goya, were these forces more brilliantly depicted than in the pictures of Gian-Battista Piranesi, who with Henry Fuseli, is examined in the segment of THE ROMANTIC REBELLION airing Saturday February 1 at 10:30 p.m. on TV Channel 10.
