LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE

PAGE THREE

TWENTY-NINE-YEAR-OLD KOPEL SPEKTOR OF CHERNOVTSY WAS TRIED IN SEPTEMBER 1974 AND SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS ON "PARASITISM" CHARGES. HIS FAMILY HAD LEFT FOR ISRAEL EARLIER IN THE YEAR WITH THE EXPECTATION THAT HE WOULD FOLLOW THEM.

ABORTION LAWS CONSIDERED BY KNESSET

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Despite bitter opposition from religious members two bills legalizing abortion were approved on first reading by the Knesset and sent to the Committee on Law and Constitution.

One bill, submitted by Labor MK Havi Shimoni and backed by Health Minister Victor Shemtov, would permit abortion only if approved by a special medical board. It was approved by a 43-13 vote. The second measure, sponsored by American-born Marcia Freedman of the Civil Rights Party, which would permit abortion at the request of the mother during the first 12 weeks of pregnancy was adopted by a 26-14 vote.

Religious MKs attacked the bills as legalized "mass murder of Jews worse than that committed by Pharaoh who ordered only male Jews thrown into the river." Some 40,000-60,000 abortions are now performed annually in Israel.

STERN APPEALS 8-YEAR SENTENCE

NEW YORK (WNS) -- David Akseibant, the defense attorney for Dr. Mikhail Stern, has appealed to the Ukrainian Supreme Court against Dr. Stern's eight-year sentence on charges of swindling and accepting bribes.

He is basing the appeal on judicial error, it was learned here. Jewish activists have charged that the conviction by a court in the Ukrainian city of Vinnitsa was due to the application for emigration to Israel by Dr. Stern and his two sons.

In Jerusalem, Israeli Foreign Minister Yigal Allon denounced the sentence as a "blatant injustice" which illustrated the cruelty to which Soviet authorities would stoop to frighten Soviet Jews. In London, 3200 doctors from British and several West European countries protested the sentence in a telegram to Soviet President Nikolai Podgorny. In New York a "Freedom Squad" of prominent physicians, led by New York City Health Commissioner Dr. Lowell E. Bellin, marched to the Soviet Mission to the United Nations to protest Stern's sentence. They demanded a meeting with Soviet UN Ambassador Jacob Malik but were refused.

Meanwhile it has been learned that the Soviet Supreme Court in Moscow has refused to reverse the death sentence imposed on Mikhail Leviev, a Moscow Jew charged with alleged economic crimes.
