

US OPPOSED PLO AT HUMAN RIGHTS MEETING

UNITED NATIONS the globe. The single opposing vote to give observer status to Arafat's group was that of the United States. Five countries abstained -- The United Kingdom, France, Federal Republic of Germany, Italy and The Netherlands. The PLO's participation was requested by the representative of the Arab League, A Moalem. Pakistan's Ghulam Ali Allana was elected chairman of the Commission.

In another UN action favoring the PLO, the Conference on the Representation of States and Their Relations with International Organizations, being held in Vienna, decided to invite the national liberation movements recognized only by the League of Arab States and the Organization of African Unity to participate as observers.
