JOHNNY CARSON BOWS IN AT CAESARS PALACE

Johnny Carson, television's long reigning late night superstar, joins Caesars Palace's roster of regal headliners with a one-week engagement that concludes on Wednesday, March 5.

Carson, TV's premier ad-libber, leaves nothing to chance on a night club stage. He is quick, incisive and hilariously irreverent, as adroit at stand-up comedy as he is at sit-down banter. In short, as he does night after night on television, Johnny Carson delivers a great show.

Co-starring with Johnny in his inaugural engagement at Caesars Palace is Phyllis McGuire and current 100% owner of a smash song-comedy act.

Phyllis has a fabulous voice (with a face and figure to match) and an incredible ability to imitate singing stars, male and female! The marvelous Ms. M. is a true master of vocal impressions and always leaves one with her audiences -- that she is a huge talent.

The engagement marks the first on a long-term contract between Johnny Carson and Caesars Palace. The Carson - McGuire superduo promises to launch the relationship in highly entertaining fashion.

REDDY, KAPLAN AT MGM GRAND MAR. 7

Helen Reddy, the red-hot Australian lass with enough gold (records) to rival the vault at Fort Knox, returns to the Celebrity Room of the MGM Grand Hotel March 7.

On the same bill will be fast-rising funnyman Gabriel Kaplan, considered by many to be one of the most inventive and original comedians in showbusiness today.

Back for a two-week engagement after three tremendously successful previous bookings at the Grand, Ms. Reddy is still atop the popularity wave that first engulfed her in the early 1970's.

It was then, after what she so aptly terms on one album as her "Long Hard Climb," that Helen Reddy finally hit the big time with "I Don't Know How To Love Him," and "I Believe in Music."

Since that time, everything Helen has touched has literally turned to gold.

Her procession of million seller records includes "Crazy Love," "I Am Woman," "Delta Dawn," "Leave Me Alone (Ruby Red Dress)," "Keep On Singing," "You and Me Against the World," and "Angie Baby."

Last year Ms. Reddy was chosen the Number

One Female Pop Vocalist by the record industry's three top magazines, Billboard, Cash Box and Record World.

ROGER WILLIAMS IN MGM LOUNGE

Roger Williams plays (naturally) a Grand piano during his MGM Grand hotel debut in the hotel's Lion's Den. Williams will be in the Grand Lounge for a month.

Williams is not just a piano player with a hot hand or two. Roger Williams' shows are musical productions which feature the extraordinary talents of the gifted pianist. Describing what he goes on stage, Williams has said: "I make love to my piano, I fight it - it fights me."

Sharing the Lion's Den spotlight with Williams, and also making their MGM debuts, are a trio of singers: Judy Bell, Don Cherry and Gene Williams.
