For mothers who dread the howling and screaming of the little monsters at their child's birthday party, Jack Gonsalves' magic show is the perfect solution. He mingles with the guests, charming all ages with slight-of-hand tricks. Then he put on a half-hour performance that amazes all with everything from the rope trick, the disappearing ball, the torn paper bit, the rabbit out of the hat and the live dove in the frying pan. After the show he twists balloons into animals for each guest to take home. He made our grandchild, Michele's eighth birthday party one to be remembered. Call him for yours at 878-4840. (J.T.)

HADASSAH THEATRE PARTY AT MGM MAR. 9

By Fern Fryc

On Sunday, March 9, Hadassah is sponsoring their second annual Theatre Party at the MGM Grand Hotel. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres will be served at 7:30 p.m. and at 8 p.m. "On the Town" will be shown in the luxurious atmosphere of the MGM Theatre on the lower floor of the hotel. The award-winning movie stars Frank Sinatra and Gene Kelly and features the beautiful music of Leonard Bernstein.

Hadassah cordially invites you to attend in order to help the organization to meet the assessment for the reestablishment of the Mt. Scopus Hospital in Israel. This institution was returned to Israeli control in 1967 and will become a rehabilitation center. Since building costs have risen sharply since the original estimate was made, Hadassah needs your help to assist in meeting the
