

U.S. GUARANTEE NO SECURITY FOR ISRAEL

JERUSALEM (WNS) United States guarantee -- Premier Yitzhak Rabin has reiterated Israel's position that a "Those who propose a U.S. - Israel defense pact or U. S. guarantees see them as a substitute for defensible borders, for Israel's capacity to defend itself," Rabin said in a radio interview.

"I would on no account want a situation to be created in which those proposing a defense treaty intend a substitute for defensible borders." Rabin's remarks were seen as expressing a growing concern by Israelis that U. S. guarantees are being offered as a means of convincing Israel to withdraw to its pre-1967 boundaries, borders that Israel regards as insecure and indefensible.

This is seen here as the explanation for the "trial balloon" which was "floated" when a senior American official aboard Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's plane en route from Zurich to Paris told newsmen that the State Department was studying U. S. guarantees for Israel in return for an Israeli-Egyptian agreement.

Later State Department spokesman Robert Anderson down-played this, indicating that guarantees were contemplated in the overall peace settlement between Israel and the Arab states.

There is no question here that at a recon-vened Geneva conference the Soviet Union will press for Israeli withdrawal and the establishment of a Palestinian state. Meanwhile Washington, Assistant Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco said the U. S. was not considering a defense treaty to guarantee Israel's survival.

NEW YORK -- Enrollment in U. S. Jewish high schools has increased 76 per cent in the past 15 years to a record estimated 75,000 students, the American Association for Jewish Education reported.

NEW YORK - Bible, Jewish History, and Modern Israeli Life, with college credits, will be the courses offered for ages 17 to 25 as part of the new ATID Summer School in Israel.
