WASHINGTON -- Judge Irving Hill of Los Angeles has been cited by Aleph Zadik Aleph, boys' component of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization, as its distinguished alumnus for 1975.

WASHINGTON -- B'nai B'rith will hold a year-long observance in 1976 of the American bicentennial. I. Budd Rockower of Philadelphia and Mrs. Betty Shapiro of Washington, D.C., were appointed chairman and co-chairman, respectively, of a special bicentennial committee to plan and supervise a series of public events, both nationally and among local B'nai B'rith units, commemorating the 200th anniversary year of the American Revolution.

NEW YORK -- Governor Hugh L. Carey of New York will receive the 1975 Humanitarian Award at the 53rd Annual Dinner of Agudath Israel of America April 27th in New York City.

NEW YORK -- The American Jewish Congress said that the Arab terrorist attack in Tel Aviv "should establish finally that the Palestine Liberation Organization is neither qualified nor eligible to participate in any genuine Middle East settlement."

NEW YORK -- Fifty cash chairmen from communities throughout the United States will tour Israel March 13-20 for a critical analysis of the current fiscal crisis and its effect on the 1975 UJA campaign.

NEW YORK -- Thirty American writers, journalists, columnists, Radio-TV news directors, commentators, and program producers left March 8th on a ten-day visit to Israel to gain a first-hand picture of the mood of Israel's leaders and its population so as to "assess the potentials of moving ahead to a real peace in the Middle East between Israel and her neighbors, especially Egypt, as Secretary of State Kissinger begins his shuttle process of negotiations there."

NEW YORK -- Mrs. Faye Schenk, President of the American Zionist Federation, said: "The dastardly attack in Tel Aviv upon innocent civilians by Arafat's gunmen demonstrates once again the true character of the Palestine Liberation Organization and the lengths to which it is prepared to go to prevent peace between Israel and her neighbors. For all fair minded people, it serves to expose the falsity of Arafat's performance at the U.N. General Assembly, and that nothing less than Israel's dismemberment will satisfy him and his henchmen."

NEW YORK -- A Dance Library in Israel has become a reality through the efforts of Anne Wilson, Chairman, dancer, choreographer, lecturer and long time friend of Israel. Friends of the Dance are invited to send contributions of materials of interest to dancers such as films, projectors literature, photographs and programs to Miss Anne Wilson at 151 Central Park West, New York 10023.

HAIFA -- The Faculty Senate of the Technion -- Israel Institute of Technology passed a resolution condemning the United Nations Economic and Social Council for its decision to ban Israel's participation in regional activities.

SEN. CHURCH (Continued from Page 1) percent increase in oil prices were "ram-rodged by Iran and Venezuela, neither of whom have a special interest in the Arab-Israeli conflict." Church said the international oil companies have received "preferential tax and anti-trust treatment in the name of national security" but "by making us more dependent on Middle East sources of oil they have weakened our security." He said the American oil companies with concessions in Saudi Arabia sought to convince the White House during the Yom Kippur War not to send arms and ammunition to Israel.
