Jewish tradition, and we're establishing continuity with the past. Secondly, like our new name, we intend to be a permanent part of the Las Vegas Jewish community.

According to Rabbi Weisberg, "Not a week passes without our gaining new members. Though only six months old, we already have 250 members." The name NER TAMID refers to the Eternal Light that is found in every synagogue, in the front of the Sanctuary, above the Holy Ark (which houses the scrolls of Torah). "According to Judaism," said Rabbi Weisberg, "The Eternal Light symbolizes God's Presence and nearness, which are eternal. God exists for all time, and for all human beings. He is a Light that never diminishes."

A NEW PASSOVER HAGGADAH (NARRATIVE) PRINTED IN LAS VEGAS BY REFORM SYNAGOGUE, CONGREGATION NER TAMID, IS DISPLAYED BY RABBI STEPHEN E. WEISBERG, LEFT, AND TEMPLE PRESIDENT DR. GENE KIRSHBAUM. FOR INFORMATION ON THE HAGGADAH AND A CLASS ON HOW TO CONDUCT HOME SEDER CALL 870-6897.

PASSOVER HAGGADAH (Continued from Page 1) the redemption and, in Temple times, a thanksgiving for the acquisition of the Land of Israel. After the destruction of the Second Temple, the latter was replaced by a prayer for the ultimate redemption.

The purpose of the Haggadah, one of the central commandments of the day, is represented by the narrative itself. Not written by any particular author, or group of authors, the Haggadah is not a "literary composition" in the accepted sense of the term. Its narrative is a collection of excerpts from the Bible, Mishnah, and Midrash, interpolated with the ritual performances: the Kiddush, the benedictions recited on the performance of precepts, and for food. Grace after Meals, and the Hallel. Gradually, stories, psalms, and
