

NEW PLO THREATS AGAINST U.S.

WASH. (WNS) -- A threat by the Palestinian Liberation Organization that it would "strike at any Israeli target wherever we can reach it, in Israel, or in Japan, or in the United States, "was being taken very seriously" by the State Department.

Department spokesman Robert Funseth also said the Department took "very seriously" its responsibility to protect individuals and foreign installations here. The threat was made by Zouheir Moshen, head of the PLO's military section and also of the Syrian sponsored Al-Saiqa terrorist group, who also said the recent raid on Tel Aviv was designed to undermine Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's efforts in the Mid-east.

Meanwhile in Jerusalem police have issued warnings of a new letterbomb threat amid reports of a chain of letter bombs found in Beirut.
