JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Center is now hosting the Las Vegas City Handball Tournament. Presently the tournament is now in the Doubles competition, after the finals of singles play which ended last week. Many of the Center handball players are participating in the tourney.

An awards night for this season's basketball players was held on Tuesday, March 18th. This year's teams did very well in the Center tournament once again.

You can now sign up for the upcoming softball season. This year we will have teams from elementary school age right up to adult team. We will also have a girl's softball program this season. You may sign up at the Center office.

The adult Center volleyball team is now into their season. If you wish to join in, the team plays on Thursday nights at the Center.

The Slim and Trim Women's Sauna program is now running smoothly on Tuesday mornings from 10 to 11 A.M. and from 6 to 7 P.M. There are still openings available at both time slots. So, if you want to slim down, the sauna is a nice and relaxing way to do it under supervised instruction.

ZOA CHAPTER FORMED IN LAS VEGAS

Kindle the Shabbat Candles

The Zionist Organization of America formed a Las Vegas committee for the task of establishing a ZOA chapter.

The committee, chaired by Mrs. V. Schiller, includes Rabbi P. Schnairson, Rabbi S. Weisberg, and Dr. Otto Schwarz.

The $25 yearly dues will help in the political and public affair work done by ZOA and will buy much ammunition in the war of truth versus lies on a nationwide level. Each member also receives excellent, informative, and educational material; and if he wishes, can participate in periodical programs of the ZOA.
