JACKSON FIVE BACK AT M.G.M. CELEBRITY ROOM UNTIL APR. 22

Motown recording greats The Jackson Five return to the large Celebrity Room of the MGM Grand Hotel April 9 for a limited two-week engagement.

On the same bill will be comic impressionist Frank Gorshin, one of the most sought-after, versatile performers in showbusiness today.

The "J-5" is the hottest-selling recording group to come from Motown in years. They have already sold more than 25 million records -- more than the Temptations, the Supremes and Stevie Wonder.

Originally from "small town" Gary, Indiana, the Jackson Five is actually six -- Michael, Marlon, Jermaine, Tito, Jackie, and now, youngest brother Randy.

Soon, however, the group could become the "J-8" because sisters Latoya and Jannett are breaking into the act.

Some of the "J-5" solid gold chart-busters include "I Wanna Be Where You Are," "Ben," "Never Can Say Goodbye," "I Want You Back," "I'll Be There."

The Jackson Five and Frank Gorshin are booked at the MGM Grand through April 22 only. Shirley MacLaine and Pat Cooper open April 23.

"MIND WITH DIRTY MAN" HITS 20TH

The Union Plaza's hilarious comedy "Mind With The Dirty Man" roars into its 20th week with record-shattering attendance guaranteeing an indefinite run.

Starring Phil Ford, Jane Kean, Marilyn Chambers and Gary Carpenter, "Mind With The Dirty Man" is the longest running play in Las Vegas history.

Producer Maynard Sloate has been hailed by compatriots for coming up with the "sleeper of the year" for the Plaza showroom.

Critics and reviewers from coast to coast have hailed the play and many have said it would prove to be a strong vehicle for New York's famed Broadway.

Ford and Miss Kean have been drawing long ovations from theatregoers for their almost believable portrayal of the characters in the Jules Tasca play.

Miss Chambers and Carpenter have been equally honored as they compliment Ford and Miss Kean superbly.

MASTER OF COMEDY BOB NEWHART IN THE SANDS COPA ROOM UNTIL APRIL 29. CO-STAR IS PAUL WILLIAMS.

Joe Hecht, real life husband of Miss Kean, Carol Worthington and Belle Ellig have also drawn strong applause as they portray members of a citizens review board.

The Tasca play, in three acts, is set in a small town -- Buckram, Md. -- where some "citizens" have decided to set the moral standards for the entire town.

The play examines the plight of a middle-aged anti-sex zealot (Ford) who stands out as a model of integrity in the small town where he heads the film censorship board.

The Plaza production is presented twice nightly except Monday with an 8 p.m. dinner show and 11:45 p.m. cocktail show.
