TREAS. SECY. CONCEALED ARAB BIAS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The American Jewish Congress has charged that Treasury Secretary William E. Simon signed a statement on behalf of the United States, which according to the AJCongress, endorses by "euphemistic concealment" the anti-Jewish discrimination practiced by the government of Saudi Arabia.

An AJCongress spokesman said the statement was adopted last June by the joint U. S. - Saudi Arabian Commission but remained "unpublicized" until now. In a letter to Simon, Rabbi Arthur Hertzberg, AJCongress president, urged Simon to repudiate the statement which deals with manpower training in Saudi Arabia and stipulates that the programs "would be sensitive to the social, political and religious contexts of Saudi Arabia."

This means the U.S. has agreed to exclude Jews from these programs, according to Rabbi Hertzberg. He suggested that instead of agreeing to Saudi Arabia's conditions "our country's representatives must insist upon a corresponding and commensurate requirement that these programs be equally responsible to the traditions and practices of our country."

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- "THE ONLY WAY WE CAN PREVENT WAR IN THE MIDDLE EAST IS TO LET THE WORLD KNOW THAT THE UNITED STATES IS NOT GOING TO PERMIT ISRAEL TO BECOME VULNERABLE TO ATTACK BY THE ARAB STATES," REP. CLAUDE PEPPER (D. FLA.) TOLD THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE B'NAI B'RITH COMMISSION ON COMMUNITY VOLUNTEER SERVICES. PEPPER DEPLORED STATEMENTS BY PRESIDENT FORD INDICATING WHITE HOUSE IMPATIENCE OVER ISRAEL'S REFUSAL TO CONCEDE TERRITORY TO EGYPT DURING THE RECENT NEGOTIATIONS CONDUCTED BY SECRETARY OF STATE HENRY A. KISSINGER. THIS ONLY ENCOURAGES ARAB INTRANSIGENCE, PEPPER SAID. HE SAID ISRAEL WAS RIGHT TO REFUSE TO GIVE UP ANY TERRITORY IN THE FACE OF EGYPT'S REFUSAL TO MAKE CORRESPONDING POLITICAL CONCESSIONS.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- President Ford expressed a decided coolness toward Israel during an interview that was broadcast live over CBS radio and television.

Some observers here saw his remarks as almost an invitation to the Arabs to harden their position. In New York, Rabbi Israel Miller, chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, commended: "We are concerned lest the Arab governments misread and misinterpret the President's remarks as an invitation to harden their line to re-institute the oil embargo and to

Vote Primary May 6

The City of Las Vegas, known the world over as the best resort spot of all, is about to elect a mayor, and the voting citizens of Las Vegas do not realize how lucky they are to be able to select a choice from so many outstanding candidates.

In other elections, including county, state and national, it is usually the lesser of two evils who gets the nod. And the people are stuck with a misfit for an entire term in office. Then you hear the growls and complaints all to no avail.

This election is different. We've got men of calibre in the running, who deserve full consideration from the voting public.

We make this final appeal before the polls open on May 6 to dispell the indifference and uncloak the aura of complacency that has blanketed the voters in this election. The indication is that less than half will cast ballots. We hope it changes from now until Tuesday. It would truly be a shame if the voters do not take full advantage of selecting from so many fine candidates. They are, in alphabetical order:

BILL BRIARE, an outspoken young man, who bases his candidacy on his ability to sell Las Vegas to the rest of the world. It is his second run for mayor, having been beaten by Oran Gragson the last time around.

PHIL CARLINO, former Democratic state chairman, who is known, respected and liked by many for his years of service to the party. Phil insists the people must be informed on a day-to-day basis.

RON LURIE, who has gained an enviable record in his first two years as city commissioner, and promises effective leadership in the top position. He favors cutting down on government waste, and insists the people determine for themselves on the issue of consolidation.

ANDY MANGERIS, who has been around long enough to know what Las Vegas wants and deserves, says he wants to take city government out of the hands of professional politicians. This is the sixth time Andy is a candidate for office and the voters are well aware of his background and qualifications.

JOHN McCORMICK is a newcomer to politics and he is determined, if elected, to make it his one and only term in office. His sincerity and honesty are displayed by an affidavit of service to the community, which he signed and posted in the court house. You can't beat a sworn statement.
