FRANK CARMEN NEW EXEC. DIR. OF NCCJ

National Conference of Christian and Jews is pleased to announce the appointment of Frank P. Carmen as the Executive Director for Clark County - Las Vegas Chapter.

Mr. Carmen comes to NCCJ with a wide range of educational and professional experiences. Originally from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Carmen has been in the Las Vegas area since 1967 when he was brought here under contract by the Clark County School District.

During his five years with the School District, Mr. Carmen held various positions as teacher, counselor, and program developer and earned a reputation as a highly skilled and dynamic professional.

For the past three years, Mr. Carmen has been Director/Counselor of Operation Bridge. Bridge is a community based youth counseling program which recently was chosen by federal and state evaluators as the number one youth counseling program in the state of Nevada.

According to Sam Krug, General Chairman of the local NCCJ Chapter, "Frank has proven himself to be extremely competent and dedicated especially in the area of program development of NCCJ as a viable community program."

NCCJ is a civic organization which was founded in 1928 to promote brotherhood among men and women of all ages, races, religions and nationalities. The Clark County - Las Vegas Chapter was established in 1958 and has throughout the years proven itself to be extremely active in the areas of race relations, labor-management disputes, police-community relations, youth programming and in developing the general awareness of our community's concerns.

Modern Jazz Quartet final television appearance will be on TV-10, Monday, May 5, at 8 p.m.

Four naturalists, Henry Thoreau, Theodore Roosevelt, John Muir and John Burroughs, will be featured on successive weeks in May on TV-10. The first will be televised Saturday, May 10 at 7:30 p.m.

ISRAELI YOUTH VISIT VEGAS HIGH SCHOOLS

VISITORS FROM ABROAD

By Geri Alldredge (Rancho)

High school students in the Las Vegas area were given the opportunity to find out first hand about Israel. Four Israeli students, Gideon Kneller of Jerusalem, Shoshana Zamir of Kjar-Daniel, Alice Simon of Herzlia, and Doron Llieseu of Haija were in Las Vegas for a week speaking to high school students. They spoke comparatively of things like dating, school, customs, life styles, sports and politics. They seemed to enjoy sharing their interesting country with American students.

The Israeli government sponsors a group of their students every year to come and tour the United States to promote good relations. The students are chosen after going through a selective process. The students stay with Jewish Americans while they are touring the United States.

The tour lasts three or four weeks in which time they go in groups of two or four to major cities for about a week at a time. While in Las Vegas, Gideon, Shoshana, Alice and Doron were on a local television program and in the newspaper.
