The Beth Sholom Seniors will hold their fifth annual installation of officers on Monday, May 5th at 12 noon at the Jockey Club - 3700 Las Vegas Boulevard South. The incoming officers are Herman Youngman, president, Frances Silvey, vice president, Mary Lawrence, treasurer and Gertrude Milgrom, secretary. Paul Valentine, well known in motion pictures and the Broadway stage will provide the entertainment at the luncheon. Arthur Mancini is an eminent pianist and composer and will accompany Paul Valentine.

Lucky Faye Steinberg was the winner of the $500 raffle offered by the Sisterhood, Temple Beth Sholom, the other day at their annual fashion show luncheon. Faye donated her winnings to her favorite charity. Most magnanimous of you, Faye, and I am sure this was much appreciated by the recipient. Good Luck, always, you are a most charitable person as well as a hard worker, God Bless.

Orchids to the gals manning the Temple Gift Shop. They put in long hours and if you go to the temple on Sunday, you will see how hard they work and always with a smile.

Gayle Smookler, recently appointed Executive Director of the Southern Nevada American Civil Liberties Union, announced the opening of the Southern Nevada office close to the court house and will be open week-day afternoons. Anyone interested in ACLU membership and/or participation is encouraged to call 734-8610.

The Fifth Annual Maifest, to be sponsored by the German-American Social Club of Nevada, will be held on the 3rd day of May at the Elks Lodge, 900 North Las Vegas Boulevard, beginning at 7:30 P.M. For information, Earl Varney at 649-5573.

We tip our hat to Rabbi Leo J. Stillpass of Temple Beth Or in Raleigh, North Carolina, who instituted the practice in his city of Bar and Bar Mitzvahs for adults. For whatever reasons the ceremony could not be performed at age 13, mature persons who sought to achieve Jewish "adulthood" attended 20 weeks of class instruction in faith and the written language under Rabbi Stillpass before the ceremony performed recently.

A series of tennis instruction programs with pros Lew Gerrard and Don Candy will begin on TV 10 Sunday, May 4 at 6 p.m.

"The Hunting of the Quark," the search for the world's smallest particles by the world's largest machines, is on Tuesday night, May 6 at 8:30 p.m. on Channel 10.

A concert by Yehudi Menuhin will be seen Thursday, May 8 at 9 p.m. on Channel 10.

Still the most meaningful program in town...
