ALL ABOUT
U.S.Y.

Regional convention 1975 was held at Camp Ramah in Ojai, California, May 22 through May 25.

Our chartered bus left Temple Beth Sholom, Las Vegas at 12:00 p.m. on Thursday for Ramah. We spent the 7 hour trip singing, laughing and watching the scenery which included the Pacific Ocean.

The activities at the convention included voting for our Far West U.S.Y. regional officers, discussion groups and talking about leadership, and short services three times a day.

With the business part of the convention taken care of there was plenty of time for swimming, hiking in the woods, volleyball, and socializing. The highlight of the convention was a dinner dance on Saturday night. Hors d'oeuvres, dinner, live band, installation of regional officers and dancing until the wee hours of the morning made this night an unforgettable and exciting evening. The friends made and renewed, the closeness we all felt in only a few days was unbelievable. With tears in our eyes, we boarded our buses with promises to write and to see each other at the next convention.
