

Only in Vegas

By
Helene Stadler

The way we hear it, ever since Jack Tell's cousin, Arnold Kerns, was elected commander of J.W.Y. Post 488, Suffolk County, N.Y., action is the word and "Mitzvah" is performed at its highest pitch, doubling pledges, collecting clean clothing for Israel and donations to local first aid. Arnie is making us proud, away out here in Las Vegas.

Mary Rockhold of Temple City, California was the lucky ticket holder for the 1975 Ford Bronco given away during the final performance of the 1975 Elks Helldorado Rodeo at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Black jack dealers here will deal -- not shuffle -- under a new method of card playing which has been devised by Bill Friedman, instructor of hotel administration at UNLV. The system, already approved by the Nevada Gaming Control Board and adopted by at least one casino, will provide uninterrupted "21" games for gamblers who will no longer have to wait idly at the tables while dealers shuffle as many as four decks of cards. A roving shuffler will be able to work as many as eight black jack tables, Friedman said.

DETROIT FOCUS HOPE HONORS SID HUDSON

SID.

In Las Vegas, everyone loves Sid Hudson, who has never turned down a request for aid from a deserving organization, whether it be shoes, clothing, bicycles or outright cash. But it took Detroit to honor him for humanitarianism.

While here recently, Sid Hudson, former Detroit now of Las Vegas, was presented with an award from Focus Hope in the lobby of Michigan Inn where he stayed...The desk plaque was for humanitarianism in furthering the workings against racism and helping promote brotherhood in Detroit... Always welcome back in Detroit by so many people, Sid was picked up at the airport by Pat Carlini and Pete Marco...All who know Sid well called to take him out but just so many hours in the day could be split up among them. "I'll rest when I get back to Las Vegas!" said Sid.
