

Only in Vegas

Fran Cohen has again undertaken the Herculean job of manning the Hadassah gift shop, 510 North Main, Telephone 385-9837. Would like for my readers to know that all money realized from the sales goes to medical research in Israel. There is free pick up and the thrift shop is open Monday to Friday until 4 p.m. At this time there is an excellent buy for someone who is in need of a black upholstered bar that is rather large and comes fully equipped with sink etc. The party who had this built is willing to sell same for a terrific loss. Also in the thrift shop you will find clothing, shoes, appliances, etc. If you do not see it one day, just keep trying what you need will show up. Please go through your closets and pass it on to the thrift shop. All you give is also tax deductible. Get going, gals.

Las Vegas has a resident population of approximately 70,000 people, but each year it plays host to as many people as live in London. Last year those visitors left behind more than one billion dollars, a sum of money equal to the gross national product of Ecuador. This week, nationwide 'Assignment America's' George Will examines the mystique of Las Vegas on "Las Vegas: Dreams In The Desert," Tuesday, July 1 at 8 p.m. The program repeats Monday, July 7, at 7:30 p.m. over Channel 10.

Dagmar Pesner, nationally acclaimed for her series of drawings of Nevada wildlife, has joined a select group of prominent area artists whose works are being shown at Simon and Bernice Ong's Nevada Frames Gallery. She is currently completing a series of drawings of Nevada wildflowers.

Aarone Finestone, photographer and writer, commemorates the Bicentennial by offering Jewish newspapers feature profiles on the role of Jews in American history. Good idea. Contact him at 5202 N. 8th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19120.

In case you didn't know it the new manager of the meat department at Somerset Supermarket in Somerset Shopping Center on Convention Center Drive has a full stock of Empire KOSHER meats and poultry. Ask for Raymond, he's got everything. Tell him you read it in THE ISRAELITE.

Mrs. Victor Schiller of Las Vegas was elected to the Board of Directors of Zionist Organization of America, North Pacific Region.
