L.V. Israelite's Views

(ED. NOTE: IF ISRAEL SHOULD ACCEDE TO EGYPT'S TERMS, UNDER U. S. PRESSURE, TIME WILL TELL WHETHER THE ARABS WILL KEEP THEIR WORD, AND IF NOT, HOW MUCH OF THE PREDICAMENT WILL BE ATTRIBUTED TO FORD AND KISSINGER, J.T.)

STATEMENT OF POSITION

BY DR. JOSEPH P. STERNSTEIN
PRES. ZIONIST ORG. OF AMERICA

We are disturbed by the present policy of the Administration which is inflicting undue pressure against Israel, contrary to the will of the American people as expressed by the Congress of the United States.

The policy of appeasement resulting in a sellout to Egypt's Sadat must be rejected by a wave of protest by all Americans who believe in fair play and are concerned with our national interest.

This policy plays into the hands of the Soviet Union. It is a reversal of position established by all United States Presidents, who have considered Israel to be a de facto ally and important friend in the Middle East.

In addition to America's political and strategic interests which require support for Israel, there is also a moral obligation not to surrender to the profit-hungry oil companies, a price which the American people should not be forced to pay.

Present American policy fails to exercise proper respect for Israel, a proven ally, who must not be asked to give up the legitimate

Las Vegas Still Stands

From reports on national news broadcasts, you would think Las Vegas is inundated, that looting of abandoned homes is prevalent and that visitors take their lives in their hands by coming here. Nothing could be further than the truth.

We are not going to minimize the damage caused by the flash flood on July 3, nor do we treat lightly the two lives lost in North Las Vegas. But we do think it pertinent, especially to the millions of tourists contemplating visiting Las Vegas this summer, to put the unfortunate act of God in its proper perspective.

The Las Vegas Valley is a bowl, surrounded by mountains. A sudden cloudburst over the valley will cause streams of water to flow towards the center of the bowl. These streams are diverted into drainage routes, known as washes. One of the washes happens to be through a parking lot of Caesars Palace, continues on under the Strip and out into Paradise Valley. There are signs in the Caesars parking area designating the path of the wash to which little or no attention is ever paid, on the theory a roof does not leak if it is not raining.

The flash flood came without warning, causing cars to float towards the tunnel under the Strip. The tunnel became blocked and water backed up into the parking lot. Not a single life was lost, or even jeopardized at Caesars Palace, or any other casino, hotel or motel in all of Southern Nevada.

The two lives that, unfortunately, were lost, happened many miles from Las Vegas in North Las Vegas, when the victims were trapped in a car overrun by the direct path of the flood.

The news reports described the debacle in Las Vegas by stating hundreds of cars were destroyed at Caesars Palace and two lives were lost. During the height of the flood, at about 5 p.m. on July 3, tourists continued to gamble and enjoy the hospitality of the hotels, even Caesars, without ever suspecting what was going on outside.

One visitor, whose car was destroyed, complained that there should have been notification over the public address system. He's lucky it was not done. If he had been notified and if he ran to the parking lot to save his car, he may have been injured or killed. Caesars Palace management is to be complimented. Caesars set up an area in the hotel for insurance adjustors to meet with patrons to settle claims.

One item should be made perfectly clear to prospective visitors and tourists. At no time was Las Vegas determined a "disaster area,"

TERRORIST BOMB KILLS 13, WOUNDS 73

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- As the largest manhunt in Israel's history was underway, the Israeli government condemned the United Nations for giving its "official seal of approval" to the terrorists responsible for the bomb blast in Jerusalem that took 13 lives and wounded 73.

The blast occurred when an empty refrigerator wired to deadly mortar shells exploded in Jerusalem's Zion Square during the height of the pre-Sabbath shopping period.

More than 300 Arabs have been rounded up for questioning while the Jordan River bridges have been closed to all but bona fide tourists. Security authorities have pieced together evidence that the mortar shells - one 120 mm and other 1mm -- were smuggled into Israel from Jordan possibly by a "summer visitor" and that it was assembled at a terrorist hideout in the Hebron hills, not far from Jerusalem. Police are also trying to trace the vehicle that brought the Israeli-made refrigerator and deposited it in the square. SUPPORT YOUR LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE NOW IN 11TH YEAR.
