BUDDY HACKETT, JAMES DARREN BACK IN SAHARA'S CONGO ROOM

Comedy genius Buddy Hackett and young singing star James Darren are back in the Congo Room of Del Webb's Sahara for a two-week run.

Even though Hackett's been headlining at the Sahara for nearly a decade, "the master" remains a surprise from show to show.

Leaving nothing sacred -- undoubtedly the reason for the "Adults Only" sign which is always posted when he appears -- Hackett keeps his audience laughing from curtain to curtain with his classic routines, free form wanderings and spontaneous jabs to the funnybone. Only one thing is certain and that's that no two Buddy Hackett shows are ever alike.

Darren, a multi-talented performer with numerous motion picture and television credits, adds dimension to the show with top-notch vocal renditions of pop and easy-listening favorites.

Rounding out the Sahara entertainment line-up are the nude revue, Pinups, Living Color and Loman & Cockerham in the Casbar Theatre Lounge and Terry James in Don the Beachcomber. Hackett and Darren will headline at the Sahara through July 23. Joey Bishop and Charo follow.
