LINDA HART BACK IN "COUNTRY MUSIC" AT LANDMARK

Beautiful and exciting Linda Hart who previously appeared in "Country Music U.S.A." with Tommy Overstreet is back in the Landmark's

Jubilee Room, this time with veteran recording artist Tex Williams. Linda, who hails from a family of gospel singers, has a unique quality in her voice.

New Christy Minstrels and later as a featured singer with the Hank Williams, Jr. Show, Linda is well on her way to becoming the brightest new star on the country horizon.

The striking brunette holds the audience in her hand as she tells the musical story of "One Man In My Life" a tune written especially for her, and has the whole room singing along as she belts out the Hank Williams favorite "Cheatin' Heart" and winds her way through the crowd "When You're Smiling."

Co-star of the country / western revue is Johnny Duncan whose recent recording "Sweet Country Woman" hit the top ten on the national charts. Also featured are the comedy team of Teter and McDonald, Don White and his Honky Tonk Band, Benny Kubiak and special guest star, Skip DeVol. Showtimes are 8 p.m. and Midnight.

SLEEPER OF THE YEAR

The Union Plaza's hilarious production of "Mind With The Dirty Man" continues a strong run in the Plaza's main showroom. Starring Phil Ford, Jane Kean, Lezlie Dalton and Gary Carpenter, the Plaza's comedy hit roars into its 43rd week with earth shattering laughter.

professor Jules Tasca as a satire against censorship.

"Mind With The Dirty Man" is presented twice nightly, except Monday, at 8 p.m. and 11:45 p.m. and is in for an indefinite run.

"It's so great and such a thrill for a performer to be able to do a play like "Mind With The Dirty Man", said Ford "because the audience reaction has been fantastic."

Miss Kean, who is well known and loved by television viewers as "Trixie" in the Jackie Gleason "Honeymooners" series, concurs with Ford.

"The situations are absolutely hilarious and so believable in many instances," said Miss Kean, "and I think that's why audiences love the play so much."

of movie musicals of the 1930's is in the very talented hands of KIM STEADMAN, SANDY KASTEL, TREVOR PICKERING, and lovely SUE NEWBRY (as Centerville, Utah's singing and tap dancing sweetheart, Ruby). JIM STREAM who pops up in just about every other off-Broadway musical round town is playing a dual role in "Dames" and shows off his versatility playing oldtime producer and captain of the battleship turned theater for the show-within-a-show. Highlight of the production is a brilliant young actress named SHARIA BASS. Miss Bass is unforgettable in her role as Mona Kent - she's hilarious, she's wicked, she's absolutely delightful!!.....SHECKY GREENE and BARBARA EDEN are paired next at the MGM Grand, opening July 23....."PLYMOUTH" A Legend in Rock, written by Nevadans PAUL HARRY, PAUL KLEINMAN and MATTHEW ROLLINS, could well be the hit of Broadway next season. Producer CHRIS BEARD flew into town to sign and seal an option to produce the new musical, and is planning a Bicentennial premiere. "Plymouth" is also being presented by director PAT O'NEILL to the Nevada Bicentennial Committee which may induce Beard to opt for a Las Vegas debut prior to Broadway.....

STRIP CHATTERContrary to a flood of rumors, BUDDY HACKETT is NOT planning to leave his homebase hotel, the Sahara. Buddy will - if he hasn't already - signed for another long term stay at the Sahara, which also puts out the fires about rumors that he was thinking of retiring in '76.....DANNY THOMAS and LOLA FALANA signed for a date at the Riviera Hotel.....KAYE BALLARD now in Oklahoma City where her new one woman concert in comedy is playing to overflow crowds and rave reviews, has her agents setting up a Vegas date later this year. Kaye, who makes such infrequent appearances in Vegas - much to the chagrin of her thousands of "Doris Day" and "Mother-In-Law" tv fans - was here earlier this year with ANN-MARGRET at the Hilton.....Speaking of Doris, could 1976 be the year the longtime career hold-out gives into a continual deluge of Strip offers?? Doris who's been offered just about everything short of total hotel ownership, can name her own price and terms for a special limited appearance!.....And speaking of hold-outs, BETTE MIDLER who "retired" from all show business for a year, has reportedly at long last given the okay to a deal for her first Vegas headliner engagement, this fall at the MGM Grand Hotel.....KEELY SMITH, VIKKI CARR, EDIE ADAMS, ABBE LANE, NANCY SINATRA, RUSTY WARREN, FLORENCE HENDERSON, EARTHA KITT and MITZI GAYNOR among the first ladies of the Strip currently setting dates for Strip outings in '75 and '76.....Playboy favorite BARBI BENTON signed to join CHARLIE RICH next at the Las Vegas Hilton.....LESLIE UGGAMS guests for a short one week stay with TOTIE FIELDS at the Sahara.....
